

MEDIA ADVISORY

February 9, 2010

Contact:
Lynn Laws, Iowa Environmental Council
515-244-11949, ext 210 (office)
515-490-1428 (cell)

Press Conference: Football Star Tim Dwight Returns to Iowa to Promote Renewable Energy

Former University of Iowa football star and NFL player, Tim Dwight will return to Iowa on Wednesday to help promote two renewable energy bills moving through the Iowa General Assembly. Mr. Dwight is the owner of iPower, a solar energy company based in California. A press conference will be held on Wednesday, February 10 at 3:30 pm in the Legislative Dining Room of the Iowa State Capitol. Other speakers include Iowa legislators and James McCain Jr. of a Des Moines-based renewable energy company.

WHEN: 3:30 p.m.-4:30 p.m., Wednesday, February 10

WHERE: Legislative Dining Hall
Iowa State Capitol
600 East Locust Street,
Des Moines, IA

SPEAKERS: Iowa Football legend Tim Dwight; also owner of iPower
James McCain Jr. of Innovative Kinetics, a Des Moines-based renewable energy company
Representative Mark Kuhn (Dem-District 4; Floyd and Mitchell Counties)
Senator Daryl Beall (Dem-District 25; Calhoun, Greene and Webster Counties)

WHAT: Football legend urges Iowa Legislators to make clean, renewable energy more affordable and accessible for all Iowa citizens, through legislation: Energy Independence Payments Bill (SF2228) and the Property Assessed Clean Energy (PACE) Bill (SSB3114).

- End -